

Applications and services in the cloud

What is a „cloud” applications?

- ❑ They are an applications which you can find in internet network
- ❑ Access to them is possible from each place on the world with computer and mobile gadgetry connected with www.
- ❑ One condition to do it is a internet connection. All data and programs needed to open it are available in a servers virtual memory.
- ❑ Taht solution is definitely more profitable from economical and technical point of view

Applications and services in the cloud

Post Office

Applications and services in the cloud

Office applications

Applications and services in the cloud

Network drives

Applications and services in the cloud

Image galleries

Applications and services in the cloud

Films galleries

The Vimeo logo, featuring the word "vimeo" in white lowercase letters on a blue background.

vimeo

Applications and services in the cloud

Social networking sites

Applications and services in the cloud

4system
The Art of e-Learning

Blackboard

Platforms of the remote teaching

Remember!

Work in a cloud to put it simply means work with the services and applications that are available by web browser. The people who using Gmail, GoogleDocs, Youtube, Facebook or E-learning platforms they are working in a cloud, though they may not realize so the job is called.